The Docsy website theme we're using supports both a Documentation site and a Blog.

Krister Kittelson (https://autocare.communifire.com/people/krister-kittelson) is working on organizing and authoring the initial documentation content, but we need someone to work on the first blog post (which will announce Sandpiper). I think we can leverage some of the work we're planning for ACPN and Leadership Days.

If someone would put that together (maybe in a Word document if you are uncomfortable with Markdown), then I will add it to the site.

And a "roadmap" here:
